

This spring, pay tribute to the celebrities we lost in 2016 with four

Musicals of the Recently Deceased

Gene Wilder (1933–2016)

Screening Musical: "Willy Wonka & The Chocolate Factory" (1971)

David Bowie (1947–2016)

Screening Musical: "Labyrinth" (1986)

Prince Rogers Nelson (AKA Prince, 1958–2016)

Screening Musical: "Purple Rain" (1984)

Alan Rickman (1946–2016)

Screening Musical: Sweeney Todd (2007)

Film Series at Julian's apartment in Dadu Hui 大都汇
Fridays at 7pm, beginning Mar. 17th Seating, as one's lifespan, is limited. Ask Julian for details.

Musicals of the Recently Deceased

Film Series

Gene Wilder in the universally beloved, family classic “Willy Wonka & The Chocolate Factory” (1971)

Series commencement screening, Friday, March 17th, 7pm
In English with English subtitles.

Musicals of the Recently Deceased

Film Series

Glam rock idol David Bowie & Jennifer Connelly in Jim Henson's fantastic puppetry masterpiece "Labyrinth" (1986)

Friday, March 24th, 7pm

In English with English subtitles.

Musicals of the Recently Deceased

Film Series

Prince's first and finest film traces his rise to glam rock superstardom in the majestic "Purple Rain" (1984)

Friday, March 31st, 7PM.

In English with Chinese subtitles.

Musicals of the Recently Deceased

Film Series

Alan Rickman's villainous judge stars alongside Johnny Depp & Helena Bonham-Carter in Tim Burton's macabre masterpiece "Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street" (2007)

Final screening of the series, Friday, April 7th, 7pm

In English with English subtitles.

