

Last Minute Notes: Isn't the cover clever? Rather than repeat a fluorescent color for the great issue #5. I have postponed the inevitable, but given, hopefully, a dramatic effect to the cover. If you think it looks stopid, that's OK, too. A couple of writers from last issue have falled to contribute tooks, and we are using his material (whether you like it or not). Thus far, we have been consistent in releasing an issue every two weeks, but, with finals coming up that may have to change. Please try to hold with a wider andience.

Woletz Elf Scares Santa Away

Children Around the World Blame CHS Teacher for Santa's Absence This Past Christmas

> The evil death elf,

CAMBRIDGE, WI - CHS teacher, Mrs. Woletz, claims to have had no intention of ruining the holiday season for millions of children across the globe, but law officials are highly suspicious- and rightly so. Woletz is well known as the prime suspect in the disappearance of Miss Bolchen. Though searches for Bolchen's corpse have been called off, Woletz is by no means off the hook. Now, with the "Serial Elf" incident (the evidence of which may or may not still be posted in plain sight on Woletz's bulletin board), police have hard evidence of her criminal intentions- unfortunately too late to save Christmas.

One can see the efffects of this tragedy by asking children if they saw Santa this year. A survey was taken, and the results showed that less than 30% of children were able to catch a glimpse of old Saint Nick. This could only be a result of the hideous elf- which scared Santa so much that he could muster only enough courage to visit a very small percentage of homes.

A student of Mrs. Woletz commented, "Everyone always thought she was so nice-but she didn't fool me! I knew that deep down she is an evil tyarant of a teacher just waiting for the right moment to enslave us all and put us to work in the coal mines!!!!" He then ran off, screaming.

Rap Runs Out of Swear-Word Combinations

NEW YORK, NY - Homies all through Harlem were crushed, Monday, when the rap music industry finally exhausted its supply of swear-word combinations with a reference to one last mother who was said to be so *in' fat. An advocate of the industry said, "Starting tomorrow, we will begin the manufacture of our own breed of profanity to aid in the continuation of rap music production. Our favorite, thus far, is "Wytormitter" which means: ugly white colored paint. We're very excited about its release." We, at the Sasquatch, are slightly less lathusiatic.

Confused Student to Smile, Nod

CAMBRIDGE, WI - A student in Mr. Gaertner's physical science class will reportedly smile and nod when he doesn't understand what the heck is going on. This technique, henceforth, looks to become the most widely used of the student body's arsenal of tricks to fool teachers into thinking that students are listening, passing up the overused "chuckle politely and write some notes on what you think they said" method. The student who will first try this technique will remain anonymous, but he told us, "I have no idea what Mr. Gaertner is talking about."

School to Crack Down on the Smuggling of Cramer's Rule Program CAMBRIDGE, WI-Local program-lord, Jacob Wickeis again introuble for programming and smuggling a program which takes all of the work out out Cramer's Rule algebra problems. The problems, which are very involved and easy to screw up, are made virtually a breeze with Wicke's performance enhancing calculator program, declared illegal by Mr. Nelson in late 1996. The school plans to prevent the program from entering upon school grounds by means of police helicopters patrolling the school hallways for suspicious behavior. The evil mastermind, Wicke, was not available to comment.

Teachers Provide Answers to Semester Exams, Say That "The Students Will Need All the Help They Can Get."

CAMBRIDGE, WI-As a result of the semester exams being especially difficult this year, the teachers of Cambridge High School have provided The Sasquatch with the answers and suggest that students study them well if they have any intentions to pass the exams. Teachers warn that all those who don't will likely get below 50%. Answers for chemistry semester exam: 1

FAVORITE MOVIES REVIEW!

Eighteen Jade Pearls. The main character is Kung Chih-ya. Kung Chih-ya learned Kung Fu from the monk Liao Yuan. The monk had 18 miniature jade statues that represented Kung Fu stances. When 9 disappeared Kung Chih-ya was ordered to find them. He must fight many powerful enemies. On his journey he finds a woman who also knows Kung Fu she offers to be his sidekick. What he doesn't know is that she is also looking for the jade statues. Together the go to a temple where they think the thief lives. There are two gates that they can enter the death gate and the birth gate. Kung Chih-ya enters the birth gate and his sidekick enters the death gate. This is the beginning of the movie, but if you want to see the rest you'll have to watch.

Every time someone moves there is a different sound effect. In one fighting scene Kung Chih-ya's sidekick fights a man where they both have to fight on large metal balls if she falls off she will either fall into sharpened bamboo rods or on the floor where the guards will kill her. In some fighting scenes Kung Chih-ya does his secret touch of death he hits his enemy in the stomach against something then ketchup-like blood oozes from their mouth and a burn mark is left where they have been struck. The people talk in a different language so it had to be dubbed.

I like this movie I give it a 7.

1 = Stupid

6=Was interesting

2= Put me to sleep 7=Good

3= Too boring

8=I learned from it

Axel Hackbarth was reported to have been seen with headphones in school. These "German-issue" headphones are allowed in Axel's school at home. Is this because they're being nice... or could it be the reasons that the Germans are so far ahead of us in school, because his school is pumping the answers into certain peoples' headphones—so that all of their answers are perfect?!! Either way you look at it, Rosen wouldn't like it.

There is an inscription on the back of the tape players. There is a Nazi symbol. Then, it says find this symbol and eliminate anyone with this symbol. The symbol following was a star of David. I believe this to be the reason that Stacy Shapiro was being badgered by Axel.

Please stay clear of Axel until a further story is made...

Siamese Triplets Split to Sit at IMC Tables

CAMBRIDGE, WI - The world famous siamese (adjoined as the now prefer to be called) triplets, Sam, Samuel, and Siam Hatcher of Cambridge found themselves in a predicament. When they walked into the CHS IMC to find a book, read magazines, and use the computer (the easiest ways to undermine the Purpose part of the IMC sign in sheet), respectively, people stared at them- but not in the usual way. The stares were looks of warning- but to no avail. The three sat down innocently at a rectangular table, and, in a flash, the librarian on duty told them, "Two to a table!!"

The Hatchers showed her their unique situation, and, without warning she pulled a letter opener from her pocket and hacked Siam from the hip of Samuel. Blood everywhere, she yelled at Siam, "Now you can sit over there! And you two had better not say anything to eachother!" Holding the wound which had bonded himself with his brothers since birth, Siam staggered over to an adjacent table.

This was only the beginning of the trouble, however. Midway into the period, Sam and Samuel began a conversation about the goings on in chemistry class during the previous hour. Like a bullet, the librarian shot over and yelled at them, "Be quiet!!!"

"Our conversation is school related," Samuel told her.

Visibly unnerved, the librarian told them, "You're disturbing the other students!"

"But we're the only ones in here!" Sam informed her.

Cleverly, the crafty librarian said, "Which makes more than enough room for you two trouble makers to sit at separate tables. Now go!" Again, they showed that they were joined at the hip, and again, she separated them with her letter opener. As Sam limped to another table, she yelled at him, "This is to be a quiet study area!!"

Each of the students died from a loss of blood. In an interview with the librarian, we asked her why she had cut them apart. She told us that they had broken the rules. A long search through the library for anything resembling a rule turned out negative.

CHS Sasquatch video game review

This time around I'm only going to review one game that I own and play a lot on my Nintendo 64! That game is

Star Wars SHADOWS OF THE EMPIRE!

This is one awesome video game. This games graphics are phenomenal, the sound is the best, and the game play is Nifty! This is by far one of the best video games I have ever played in my life.

You are Dash Rendar; in a galaxy far away:
Your job is to protect Luke Skywalker, and help the Rebel
Alliance defeat the evil: Dark Prince Xizor, head of the Black Sun crime syndicate, who is trying to take Darth
Vader's place at the Emperor's side. To do that Prince
Xizor must eliminate Luke Skywalker.

In this game watch out for deadly bounty hunters and mean stormtroopers.

"May the Force be with You!"

I give this game a 15 out of 15 just like Mario!

OPINION

Spinach Isn't So Bad

Everyone's always griping about yegetables these days, which is all right with me, but put blame where it is due- not with spinach. Asparagus and lima beans are much more apt to criticism from persnickety children than spinach. Kids are stupid- but they're not dumb! They know that spinach eaters will grow up to be big strong sailors like Popeye. Why, then, is spinach such a vegetable of ridicule? An answer may lie within the books of history when the Pilgrims came over from Andorra. They brought with them their culture- but not their prize Andorran spinach. This may have been the reason why they died of famine after that big feast. Spinach can and will heal the world some day, and you'll wish you had salad every day.

CORPUSTLE'S COOKING CORNER

Cody Corpustle here! Are you, like many of us, writhing from all those big holiday meals? I created this near-masterpiece assuming that the last thing you'd want to think about is food. It's not exactly low in fat, but your relatives will be delighted with it none the less! So if you want to get even with yourself for being such a glutton, try my new recipe: Suicide Soufflé. I quarantee you'll never "pig out" again!

Suicide Soufflé

Use large ham pan (the one used for the Christ-mas ham should do the trick). Take out any shelves that might be in the oven.

Mix in pan:
4 cups distilled water
25 carrot cookies
10 apple slices (for flavor)
1 self

Place the pan in the oven, set oven to clean (so that you can't get out once you're inside), put self in pan and close oven.

You may want to set the timer so that your family can take you out when you're done.

And now a guiding light for the troubled lives of America's youth Ask Mr. Smily Face :-)

Dear Mr. Smily Face, my boyfriend and I are going through some hard times. You see, he wants to join the circus and become the wild man from Borneo. He's actually from Trenton, NJ and is a shy, lazy grocery store cashier. I fear that him joining the circus could jeopardize his promising career and, therefore, my financial stability. He's also quite a carouser, and I'm afraid he might fall in love with the fat lady. Should I let him go, or should we go our separate ways? Sincerely, Uncertain in Uganda

Dear Uncertain, do you have a life? Er um, I mean, do you have any activities that you perform throughout the day that sustain and/or justify your continuation from day to day? It sounds to me like someone in your relationship is not being very understanding. We all have a dream. Why, I myself aspire to be a Turkish newt and chameleon doctor. Taco Juans' Movie Review

This past weekend I went to the movies and I seen a couple of pretty new movies. The movie me review today is "Jingle All The Way"

This movie is about a father (Arnold (I can't spell his last name)) who kind of lies or forgets to his son. To make up with son Arnold says to him you ask me for something for Christmas and I get it. So his son asks for a Turbo Man action figure. Arnold lies to his wife and says he got it, which is not totally true. His wife says "good thing cause they are probably sold out by now".

Christmas Eve has come:

So Arnold goes finally shopping for it that day. It's all sold out though. He actually goes to every toy store in Minneapolis. He will also do anything to get this doll. Sinbad meets him at the first store he gets to. They battle through the show just to get Turbo Man!

I will not say any more cause it would ruin it for you if you want to know the ending go see it for yourself!

I give this movie a 8 out of 10 ! thank you for reading my movie review.

Your Personal Guide to the Stars FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR OF 1997

By: Nailuj Relyt, certified astrologer, peanut sheller.

Nailuj realizes the possible consequences of a mere mortal such as yourself knowing your future for an entire year, however, he does not care at all.

- Aries: Your New Year's party having gotten a bit out of hand, you spend the rest of the year scraping vomit off the walls.
- Taurus: Searching for a new career, you find that you have all the credentials necessary to be firing squad target.
- Gemini: You will be mugged by a flying walrus in mid-July. Carry a can of Walrus-Off spray wherever you go.
- Cancer: A soothsayer tells you to beware the ides of March. Now, if you could only remember what that meant.
- Leo: The Ewoks drop by to watch the Star Wars trilogy. Unfortunately, Jabba the Hut comes along and eats you before the cool light saber scene even begins.
- Virgo: 1997 looks to be a fun-filled year for virgos, full of inhaling and exhaling air. What fun!
- Libra: Your resolution to eat less fails miserably when you encounter a giant talking muffin on the street which somehow convinces you to eat it.
- Scorpio: Your life-long dream will come true this year. Later, you will realize that you only dreamed that it did.
- Sagittarius: Love is written in the stars for you.

 Unfortunately, you will fall in love with the giant muffin from the Libra section.
- Aquarius: Your heart is broken when your idol, the guy on the Frugal Gourmet, knocks your block off when you storm onto the stage and interrupt his show to say, "I love you".

Ultra Zone Restrooms: The Ultimate Fecal Adventure

MADISON, WI - Those, like myself, who have been to Ultra Zone know that playing the game is only half the fun. The other half lies within the restrooms, where the lights turn your lips orange and make you look like a zombie in the mirror. When I was there recently, I was ready for the lights, but not for the obnoxious stench inside. Apparently, those sharp shooters who consider 20,000 points a low scoring game couldn't hit the toilet if their life depended on it.

Digging through the trash, I found the proof.

Seventh Annual Candy Machine Rocking Contest To Be Held January 10th Mr. Bockhop to Give Out Certificates of Participation (Detentions)

CAMBRIDGE, WI - When winter comes around, most people think that the only sports to play are hockey, wrestling, and basketball, but students in Cambridge are treated with a chance to hone their skills at the prestigious sport of candy/vending machine rocking. Athletes simply purchase a box of Runts or another jam-prone selection, and, when it gets stuck in the spiral thing, use a combination of strategy and brute strength to knock it out. Penalties are served for breaking the glass or unplugging the machine. Any additional candy knocked out is considered a bonus. Professionals can reportedly knock out a Starburst without even paying.

Last year's champion was Chris Kruel. After the competition, the master of physics shared his secrets of success with us in a private interview. He revealed to us, "If you ram into it really hard, you can get stuff out for free." Though his theory has been tested only by himself, one darest not argue with concepts contained therein.

Mr. Bockhop will again be awarding the prizes. A detention of participation will be given to all participants, anyone who is successful knocking candy out will receive an honorable mention consolation prize of an ISS courtesy of Mr. Rosen. The grand champion might get expelled.

CHS Teachers Demand Tug-of-War Rematch

CAMBRIDGE, WI - After suffering humiliating defeats in each tug of war match, and male teachers not even participating, the teachers who were in the tug of war competition have demanded that a rematch be scheduled immediately. In fact, all teachers expressed their wishes to participate. Mr. Hill commented, "Bring 'em on! I could take them all on at once." He was actually talking about punching lunch tickets, but there is always room for different interpretations.

PEOPLE AND THEIR CARS

People these days are obsessed with their cars and sometimes value themmore than human life and the lives of small, cute, little furry animals like rabbits and squirrels. They are sometimes safe drivers, but, on many occasions, they turn into some type of #a}}-bound demon as soon as they get into their automobile, chasing people around and plowing over mailboxes for sport and recreation.

if you are one of these chased people, here is what you can do: you could, of course, take down the license plate number and report it to the cops—but that's no fun. Keying and tire slashings are good—but not always the best deterrent. Try putting their car up on concrete blocks, take the tires off, slash them at the top on the inside, and then fill them full of quick-drying cement. Once finished, put them back on the vehicle. You will soon learn that this has greatly decreased their 0-to-60 rate to about two minutes. Also, filling cars full of sand, dirt, snow, and packing peanuts (whatever is available in bulk) is a good idea.

Making copies of their keys and "borrowing" the car for the weekend is especially funny when they find it in their driveway on Monday morning (with about 2,000 more miles on it). Just remember: Fish knives do wonders on seats, and you might want their stereo to add to your collection.

Oh, and you might not want to do this if the owner of the car is named Bubba and is an ex-convict who just opened up his own tattoo and piercing gallery. Be warned, you could end up with some new "facial features".
